

A CENTRAL LOCATION FOR CEREMONY & CONTEMPLATION

HONORING PENNSYLVANIA'S BRAVE SERVICE MEMBERS

Located at the Indiantown Gap National Cemetery in Annville, Lebanon County, the Pennsylvania Veterans' Memorial is the first in the state to honor veterans of all eras from the Revolutionary War forward, and it is the largest veterans' memorial located in any of the national cemeteries.

ABOUT THE MEMORIAL

The Memorial – a central location for ceremony and contemplation, education and commemoration – stands in lasting tribute to those who served our state and nation in times of war and peace. The Memorial design is intended to evoke “the ruins of a war-torn building centered in a land of solemnity”. Its architecture is peaceful and harmonious, containing the elements of air, land and water – representative of the battlefields where our veterans fought for our freedom.

A tomb for all fallen soldiers, known or unknown, is strategically placed, mindful of the sacrifices shared by veterans in the cause of freedom.

The Memorial serves as an active living memorial to the ideals and principles for which veterans have served, battled and died.

For more information about the Memorial, visit: pa.gov/agencies/dmva.

A REMINDER OF THE DEDICATION, SACRIFICE AND SENSE OF PURPOSE THAT VETERANS HAVE UNDERTAKEN IN DEFENSE OF FREEDOM.

SHOW YOUR SUPPORT

The Memorial relies on your donations for maintenance of its grounds and structures. Donations will be used to keep the Memorial looking pristine and beautiful for generations to visit and reflect on the sacrifices of the state's veterans.

DONATE TO THE MEMORIAL
